FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 21, 1860. Important-Read! Read! Read!

The U ion and American of yesterday copied s statement from a correspondent of the Marino (Alm.) Commonwoolth to the effect that had issued a record of Mr. Bett committing him to anti-slavery views. It is wholly false as will be seen from the following dispatch : WASHINGTON, Sept. 20, 1860.

Hox. E. H. Ewing-The statement that our Committee has sent to the North an anti-slavery record of Mr. Bell is false. We have issued no other record of Mr. Beat. on slavery except the one first publish a at A. R. BOTELER.

The Opposition in Alabama.

The Montgomery Mul, whilem the central Know Nothing organ of Alacama, presided over by one of that delectable fraternity known as the "Southern League," is about to take precidence of all other dismoion organs in the State of Alabama. It is a vigorous supporter of BRECKINRIDGE. We look to it for the best disunion literature affoat. It has not got down yet to the publication of the fiery pronunciamientos of a "fellow they | that, so far as he can learn, the candidates, call" WM. F. SAMPORD, but it is momentarily expected to. We think it is likely it voted for him for Governor last year, and it ought | They will regard the election of Lincoln. now to pay his opinions the respect of a republication. The Mail gives us sententions advice how to dissolve the Union. It tells us to run three candidates in opposition to the Republicans, and that will insure Lincoln's favor of this movement. What a fearful conelection, and that will insure dissolution. It tells us to provide for the consequences by refusing to pay our debts to Northern people | considerable portion of our Breekinridge -keep our money at home and bring on money panies and financial crises among our enemies, and then we will have them in such | Douglas all the available forces they can a flutter of tear, they can do nothing. Wise, prescient, patriarchal Mail! But the Matl does not stop to consider that about all the provision operators in Alabama and elsewhere in the South, are buying bacon and gard the appeals of patriotism which are corn and flour from the North to feed the hungry people at the South when the crops have been cut short by dry weather, in bills | which the action of South Carolina depends on Northern Bankers. Brokers, &c., to be paid | we can only say that they will be held to a in the future. It forgets that under its advice, these bills would be discredited, and the South be left with balf rations and starvation. The Med probably thinks a revolution could be carried on without bread. That mlarming condition of the Republic! Let Co., Nashville. may be so, but will the Mail join the army on them BEWARE! Let them REMEMBER! - Memphis

The Mail tells us that Judge WATTS, a gentleman in Alabama to whom Mr. Bell. addressed a letter some time ago, and the leader of the Opposition in Alabama, has declared that the election of Lixcoln would be sufficient cause for dissolution, and then sets down the opposition in Alabama, in that category. The Nashville Union and American quotes the Mail to show that the Union party of Alabama is a disunion party. Thus the thing goes all around, and it will probably be repeated from every stump occupied by a Breckinridge speaker in Tennessce for the rest of the canvass. For ourselves, we do dot know what Judge Watts may have said; but we do know one thing and that is, that Judge Warrs is an earnest supporter of John BELL and EDWARD FVERETT. Whether he believes or has said that Lincoln's election would be sufficient cause for dissolution, o not, he is doing his utmost to prevent the happening of that event, by an enthusiastic M. Hayes. support of the only national ticket now be fore the American people, and the only one that stands any chance to detent Lincoln. In fred W. Johnson. doing this he is doing a noble, a glorious, a patriotic work. Whatever his opinions may be of the course proper to be pursued in the event of Liscous's election, he is doing all he can to prevent it. In this he is as far from the YANCEY school of disunionists as the North and South Poles are apart. They broke up the democratic party and are now supporting BRECKISKINGE to secure the election of a R patrican, that they might have a pretext for dissolution; he is doing all he can to defeat both their scheme and LINCOLN. That is the difference, and it is a very wide one. The use that is made of it is the desperate resort of a desperate cause. And we have only this to say: "Go on, gentlemen, and make the most of it."

Proposed Fusion between Filends of Brecainridge and Dougias lu l'ennessee.

The Union and American, of yesterday, publishes a proposition from Mr. James BEITTON, Jr., Doughs- Elector for the First Congressional District, which is concurred in to the constitutional rights of the South, by W. H. Malosn, the Douglas Elector for the Second District. The proposition is as follows:

"Teat we have but one Democratic Electoral ticket in Tennessee, and if that ticket should be elected by a Union of the BRECK-INSIDER and Dorlas men, then the vote of the State shall be cast as follows: 1st, To be east for Mr. Breckinnings provided it will elect him; but it is will not elect Mr. BRECK-INRINDGE then to be cast for Mr. Douglas provided it elect him. If, however, the vote of T-nnesse will elect neither and there is no election by the Electoral College, then the vot: of the State to be cast, first, for Mr. BRECKINGINGE, provided it will put him into the House of Representatives over Mr. BELL. if not to be cast for Mr. Douglas, provided it will put him into the House over Mr. Bell," The Union and American indorses the prope sition, and says that it meets the approval of Senators Johnson, Nicholson, Gov. Harris. and Mr. Ewing and all of the Breckinridge Central Committee that it has had an opporcentral Committee that it has had an oppor-ionity of consoling. After the unmeasured it as his decided opinion, that the Old Do-terms in which Mr. Douglas has been char-minion was sure for Bell and Everett. All acterized by the Breckinridge press of this of our own friends, who have visited there State, we cannot well see how the real friends of Mr. Dotter as can consent to the proposed confirmed by a very intelligent and prominent friend of Mr. Breckinridge.

And if Virginia is thus unmistakably for Bell and Everett, who can doubt how the adjoin-nds of Republicanism. In the vent usion is consummated, therefore, one wi may have to swallow the pill of disunion, a the other may have to take squatter sov eignty. Whichever takes the dose, will effectually sold and completely used The stronger, whichever that is, will circu vent and anihilate the other. As "it takes two to make a bargain," we shall not consisth matter accomplished until we hear father from the Douglas side.

The quarter from which the proposit omes reminds us that about the time of the meeting of the Charleston Convention following dispatch appeared in the publi prints dated, New York April 21 :

"The Douglas men to-day telegraphed Sator Johnson, of Tennessee, to know whether he would be Vice-President on a ticket wit Douglas."

After the meeting of the Charleston Convention the following also appeared in the public prints, dated Washington, April 25: "Johnson, of Tennessee, is leaning towards not be got, and there is nothing advantageous in its adoption." These facts ramind us further that Mr. JOHNSON'S Senatorial term expires on the 4th March 1863. Taking the sum of the whole matter, if these facts will conduce to the fusion, and if that will conduce to the re-election of Senator Jouxson, he is welcome to them. Our opinion is that nothing short of Divine interposition can defeat Mr. BELL in this State, and if his friends but do their duty

South Carolina Openly for Dissolution.

We republish below an article from the Memphis Appeal, and commend it to the attention of our readers. The facts stated are the National Union Committee at Washington of great significance. We have seen it stated in some of our South Carolina exchanges that candidates for the Legislature were being interrogated with a view to ascertain their opinions as to the propriety of South Carolina seceding alone in the event of the election of Lincoln, or awaiting the cooperation of other Southern States; but we were not informed as to the responses made. If the Appeal's information be correct, South Carolina may attempt to force the issue of disunion upon the South by resisting the authority of the Federal Government, and appealing to the sympathy of her Southern sisters for support:

We learn by a reliable gentleman, who is resident of Georgia, but well posted on the canvass for members of the Legislature now going on in South Carolina, that the candidates are in every instance made to pledge themselves in favor of a dissolution of the Union in the event of the election of Lincoln to the Presidency. Our informant assures us without exception or qualification, are pledg ing the State to this dreadful resort as a remedy for the wrongs of which they complain without any overt act of aggression, as sufficient cause to dissolve their connection with the Federal Government. It is believed that the members elected to the Legislature will be almost, if not altogether, unanimous in dition of things!

At the same time that South Carolina is moving so rashly in this direction, no infriends, especially in the Northern States, are willing to risk the chances of Lincoln's success by withdrawing from the support of muster in the field. What can the true friends of our glorious Union think of such onduct? Knowing as they now must, what is to be the cost of their obstinacy and per sonal bitterness to Douglas, they still disredaily made upon them. Of the Southern men who are exerting all their power to bring about the result upon the happening of fearful responsibility by the people, and one that will follow them to their graves. Nor can they escape it by retreating behind the high-sounding names of politicians and wireworkers to whose inordinate ambition and thirst for office is mainly due the present

Maine.

The N. Y. Tribune publishes the returns from 320 cities, townships, and plantations in Maine. They foot up for WASSIBURN, Republican, 61,543; SMART, Douglas democrat, 44,834; Barnes, Union, 1,224. Last year the Republican vote was 57,230; Democratic 45,387. The returns yet to come in will increase the Republican majority slightly. It is singular that the Republican vote alone has increased, and increased so largely. We don't see how this could have been effected in any other way than by the Breckinridge-Yancey men voting for the Republican candidate as a means of injuring Douglas. In regard to the Congressional and Legislative electors, the Tribune says:

The Republican candidates for Congres are elected by majorities very nearly as fol I. John N. Goodwin by 1,667 over Thomas H. Charles W. Walton by 3,000 over Calvin Record. III. Samuel C. Fessenden by 900 over Al-IV. Anson P. Morrill by 5,000 over B. A.

G. Fuller. V. John H. Rice by 2.500 over S. H. Blake VI. Frederick A. Pike by 1,300 over Bion Bradbury. We believe no one of the members just dected has ever yet been in Congress. Certainly no one is a member of the present House. Mr. Morrill is the present Governor. The Senate cousists of 31 members, and is nanimously Republican.

The last House consisted of 119 Republicans and 32 Democrats. This was thought hard to beat; but there are probably not over 25 Democrats elected this year. Thus far, the returns are 84 Republicans, 11 Democrats. In one township (Greene) there is a Letter from the Hon. B. S. Bibb. MONTGOMERY, ALA., Sept. 18th, 1860. Col. Andrew H H. Dawson-Dear Sir: Your letter of the 15th inst., asking me, "Is it true that you have resolved to support Bell and Everect, and if it is, why did you do it?" has been received. In reply, I would remark that we have a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, nominated by a section, with sectional issues, in opposition whose defeat is with me the paramount ob-

I have, therefore, declined to commit my self to the support of any one until I could be better informed as to the individual who might be most successful in effecting such a

In my recent visit to several watering places in the mountains of Virginia, I had an opportunity of seeing and conversing with a number of gentlemen of intelligence, from most of the Southern States, and among them were the friends of Breckinridge, Douglas and Bell; and taking the aggregate of information thus obtained, and other sources of intelligence, I am satisfied that Beli and Everett stand the best chance to detest the black republican Lincoln, and have determined to give them my support.

B. S. BIBB. Respectfully,

No Mistake about Virginia. A prominent gentleman of this State, member of the last Legislatore, and a Breckinridge man, passed through this place on last Monday on his way home from Virginia, this summer, have uniformly given us the same information, and we are glad to have it
